PRIVATE COLLECTION IGNAC HIRSCHLER – P 331

Collection of 832 letters and telegrams to and from Dr. Ignac Hirschler (1823-1891), an ophthalmologist by profession and president of the Jewish Community of Pest as well as chairman of the Jewish Congress, officially called "the General Congress of Jews of Hungary and Transylvania"

The collection comprises letters addressed to Hirschler, the leader of the Neolog camp by Jewish Communal leaders and activists from all over historical Hungary, with copies of his replies. The 762 letters, written mainly in German, were sent between 1868-1869 around the period of the Jewish Congress and the elections of representatives of the Jewish communities to the Congress, which eventually resulted in the split of the Hungarian Jewry into independent Neolog, Orthodox and Status-quo communities.

The Hirschler collection at the CAHJP is a relevant primary source to the history of the Hungarian Jewry.
